It has been represented to me, from sources which I deem reliable, that the inhabitants in several portions of Kansas, have been reduced to nearly a state of starvation. on account of the almost total failure of their crops, while the harvests in every oth er portion of the country have been abundbant. The prospect before them for the coming winter is well calculated to enlist the sympathies of every heart. The destitution appears to be so general, that it cannot be relieved by private contributions, and they are in such indigent circumstances, as to be unable to purchase the necesities of life for themselves. I refer the subject to Congress. If any constitutional measures for their relief can be devised, I would recommend its adoption.

Notice.

CYRUS H. STREATOR, a non resident of Ohio, will take notice that Sitas Barnes did, on the 22d day of November, A. D., 1860, file his petition in the Court of Common Pleas within and for the county of Portage in the State of Ohio, against said Cyrus B. Streator and Mary Streator, defendants, exting forth that on the 23d day of October, A. D., 1855, the said Siles Barnes sold a house and lot at the centre of "treetaboro", in said county, to said defendants and took the note of said defendants for two handred and fifty dollars for a part of the purchase money, due November 1, 1855; that said note is due and a portion of it unpaid, and that he has a lien on said house and lot for the payment of said note. In said petition plaintiff prays that he may recover against said defendants the balance due on said note amounting to two hundred and thirty-seven and sitioen one-hundredths dollars, ($237 16.), and interest from May 8, 1858, and in default of payment of same and from May 8, 1888, and in default of payment of same that said house and lot be sold to pay said claim, and the said Cyr.: a H.
